KUDOS + THANK YOUS

January 2025 Club Mods

On Sunday January 19th several things took place at the clubhouse.

I'd like to give a BIG thanks to Linda Morgan & Nan Johnson who spent hours on Sunday organizing the Obedeicne ribbons & getting rid of a lot of old junk upstairs. They did a great job!

Another BIG thanks goes to Lodge Weber for buying an extra accessory that he installed to make our wireless speakers work with the microphone.

Betty

Dog Phone Thank Yous

I want to thank Rose for stepping-up & taking over the OTC dog-phone. She is in training with Lane who has held this position for 10 years.

Lane Carlee asked to step-down as of 1/31/25.

Thank you Lane! OTC is forever grateful for all of your years of service!

Betty

January 2025 Scent Work Trial

I just wanted to send a note of appreciation for allowing me to judge as a provisional AKC Scent judge at your trial.

It has been slow trying to obtain assignments as Novice & Advanced provisional and I admire that your club is willing to help new judges to fulfill their requirements.

I was very impressed with the skills of the dogs and handlers, the efficiency of the club, and the hardworking volunteers.

More than anything I appreciated the welcoming and friendly climate of your club.

Thank you again and I wish you continued success!!

Carol Happel

February 2025 Fetch Test

On Saturday, February 1, OTCPBC held our first AKC Fetch trial. Fetch is a test that requires dogs to retrieve a ball or bumper and, at the upper levels, respond correctly to retrieving signals. On Saturday, more than 25 dogs ran (per trial) at the Novice, Intermediate, or Advanced level. Thirty dogs earned new titles. To achieve a title, a dog must perform a qualifying test under two different judges.

Emily Mardis and Carolee Boyles served as our judges and set the standard for judges to come.

Diane Sedberry was an organized and especially patient Trial Chair. Judy McPartland (Trial Secretary) made sure we were prepared and made it possible for us to accept day of show entries.

Lindsey Smith served as Trial Photographer. She and her husband David were indispensable to setting up the temporary fencing the day before. Emily Mardis led the way in this important effort, too, and also provided the required boxes, obstacles, and blinds. The Club supplied the fencing and stakes.

These people were invaluable day of trial:

Brian DeCarlo
Bob Becker
Scott Adams
Storey Wenger
Diane Sedberry
Tim Peppard
Mary Macchia
Bonnie and Archie Kretchik

Club member Jane Craig deserves a special congratulations for earning titles on two dogs: Advanced (Astro) and Intermediate (Gunner).

Thanks to everyone, including and especially our Board Members, who supported this event and who made it possible.

From Marti Hohmann

I wanted to thank you for the opportunity to judge a Fetch event for the club this past Saturday. I was thrilled with the large showing for such a new sport. The participants were all great. The volunteers were phenomenal. I want to highlight the ones I recall - Marti, Storey, Diane, Bob B, Brian, Scott, Bonnie, and Mary. If I overlooked anyone, I apologize. The volunteers were organized and so helpful to both me, Coralee, and the participants. I think it was a great event.

Please let me know if there was any feedback, positive or negative.

I will use it to make improvements.

Sincerely,

February 2025 Agility Trial

I want to thank everyone who made our Agility trials in Ft. Pierce another big success January 31st thru February 2nd.

To our judges: Sue Barnett & Oksana Syrkin. You both did a WONDERFUL job as usual. You kept the rings flowing & exhibitors moving with both your courses & your friendly demeanor.

To our Trial Secretary Eric Reese & his assistant Tracy Hanna. Thank you for ALL of your hard work in keeping the rings moving. Great job!

To my helpers: Jen Young, Barb Bodnar, Kimme Levee, Rachel Bean, Slim Barker, Chelsey Conklin, Brenda Becker, Susan Minix & Rose Siebeneck. You all did an amazing job! This event could not happen without all of your help & advice. I am truly overwhelmed with gratitude! This was NOT an easy trial to get through! It produced challenges more than once.

If I missed anyone it was not intentional.

Until next time!

Thanks again!

Betty

From Agility Judge Sue Barnett:
I just wanted to say "Thanks" again for asking me to judge for the OTCPBC
Trials this past weekend. The volunteers, course builders & T/S were exceptional!

Please extend my appreciation to all the Committee & Club Members for a job well done.

-Marni Bellavia

Performance Highlights Brian & Monte RA SIA SEN CGCA TKI:

Monte achieved exceptional results in the January SW Trial. Despite his relative inexperience in SW trialing and his usual tendency to underperform on day two, Monte surpassed all competitors, earning High in Trial for the Novice class in both Trial 1 and Trial 2, successfully completing 7 of 8 trial qualifying runs (Brian screwed up!!).

This performance secured Monte a SW Buried Novice title, and he is nearing completion of the overall SW Novice title.

I commend Monte's performance and express my gratitude to the dedicated volunteers who ensured a smooth and efficient trial. The addition of SW-themed swag bags for placements was a welcome and unexpected surprise.

-Brian DeCarlo

Gunner has been very busy the past few months.

Amazingly, he earned two agility Novice Jumpers legs! He then headed to the National Beagle Club Specialty in Tennessee and finished his Beginner Novice, Rally Advanced, and Scent Work Advanced titles. Then he was off to an NACSW Nose Work trial to earn his NW1. He followed all that with some more Scent Work titles and recently finished his Fetch Intermediate at OTCPBC's Fetch trials.

Go versatile Beagle! - Jane Craig

Astro the Weimaraner came out of retirement this season to enjoy one of his favorite dog activities-retrieving.

He earned his Fetch Intermediate in December and his Fetch Advanced title
at OTCPBC's trials
Feb 1st.
